OVERVIEW

Naram-Sin Management and Commercial Services is a privately owned strategic management, commercial services, and trade solutions group with registered operations in the Republic of Iraq and the United Arab Emirates.

We specialize in strategic commercial services, deal brokerage, long-term partnerships, international trade, and transaction management across the energy, oil & gas, industrial, and infrastructure sectors.

By combining regional expertise, trusted commercial relationships, and practical execution capabilities, we help clients identify opportunities, access new markets, negotiate and manage complex transactions, and deliver successful commercial outcomes.

WHO WE ARE

We are an integrated commercial and business solutions company specializing in strategic commercial services, energy and commodity trade, and business management solutions across local, regional, and international markets.

We connect qualified buyers, sellers, producers, investors, contractors, and project owners through our commercial network and industry expertise, facilitating business opportunities from initial engagement through due diligence, commercial negotiations, contract management, logistics coordination, and execution.

Our approach combines commercial integrity, market knowledge, strategic relationships, and disciplined execution to deliver efficient market access and sustainable value for our clients.
